

Women's Empowerment and Gender Equality World Assembly for Women: WAW! 2022

The Government of Japan will host the World Assembly for Women (WAW! 2022) in Tokyo on December 3.

The WAW! is an international conference that has been hosted by the Government of Japan since 2014 as a part of its efforts aimed at realizing gender equality and advancing women's empowerment.

During WAW! 2022, discussions will be held on various topics, on the theme of "WAW! For Mainstreaming Gender into a New Form of Capitalism". The conference will be online streamed. Japan is accelerating its actions toward gender equality and women's empowerment to create a society in which diversity are respected, regardless of gender.
